

Founded in 1990, Emissary publishes mainly humorous books, including the complete set of Peter Pook novels.

All the Pook books are being re-issued, a different title each month, in a new edition standard paperback format, with new cover designs by Richie Perrott, each title including a preview of another Pook in the series. (£7.50 each).

To date, 15 titles have been re-issued (see below).

An unpublished book of humorous quotations, "Pook Said It" by Peter Pook, many of which have been culled from his own books (with page references), is scheduled for publication in 2008, and will complete the collection.

GOING THROUGH THE MOTIONS

by
LESLEY BOWN

(Previous Winner of the Peter Pook Humorous Novel Competition)

What's a girl to do when she has champagne tastes and a half-of-lager income? She could try asking for a pay rise, or there's always that sexy man she met in the supermarket. Trouble is, he never answers the phone, and her boss won't give her a pay rise till she solves a little problem for him. Colin next door is driving her mad, best friend Jennifer is marrying the dreadful Godfrey and there is definitely something odd about Rod and his floating bath tub.
